Like I said it will be completely unreal. I was told the ground itself would open up with nightmarish creatures crawling out of it to drag us to Hell.

Nothing planned when the asteroid hits. Nothing anyone here can do anyways. No wedding ring on the finger and no dowry means no protection. Just pick ups of private clients through direct financial arrangements and friends that dealt favours.

You know how deep in you are now? They've arranged a big vacation by shutting things down socially and running the printing press because those in charge already know the futility of the situation. Just easier that they quit and enjoy the last of the summer wine since after Aug it really won't matter a lick spittle what they do now.

It's going to happen.

Kind of why most of us are simply doing our own thing. Familiarity has bred contempt to the point everyone connected to the system is a liability top to bottom, between the name calling, the progressive annoyance, the getting shot/stabbed/hung/hurt, all the bullshit has endeared none of you to anyone with the ability or group to actually give a rats arse about the inevitable outcome that's been 'brokered'. Again, enjoy your summer... it'll be all your last at the expense of your own governments. Now go drink your last cups of wine while they are available and consider earth gone forevermore after the asteroid shatters her into a million pieces.

Unfortunately was going to happen when something the size of Jupiter ploughs through the solar system and no one is steering the chariot of the gods.

The epitaph on the tombstone will read "too dumb to live".

You're kinda nice, so I will tell you.
You need to draw a circle on your hand with a cross. You should then have 4 triangles in your circle.
Write 4 pluses in the center of each triangle. So then you'll have 5 pluses in total.
Draw this with a black marker and show it to the creatures whatever they look like. They will leave you alone if you do this.
Put this sign up on your house everywhere you can, on all the windows.

To all of you saying I'm LARPING, fine. I believe this could happen because I really trust this guy. If I'm LARPING then no damage done. If I'm not then I just saved all your lives.

Also does anyone know what that sign is? He named it but I don't remember what he called it.

No, he said it would pretty much be endgame for everyone. Like judgement day. Any plans you have for the future you might as well cancel forever if you see any kinds of lights in the sky on that day or the day before it.
But it will essentially be some kind of event where we all get to understand what the essense of life is, what happens in death. Its a day where everything will be revealed to us and we will ascend somehow and gain complete knowledge. That's what he said. The cross symbol on your hand is meant to protect you from them, if you don't get dragged into hell you will gain complete knowledge.

So, lights in the sky. And a lot of them, not just a few dots. That's what I remember him saying.

I explained it in my above posts. He described that unspeakable creatures will come out of the Earth afte lights in the sky have appeared. The creatures from Earth will either drag us into Hell or we wil get some omniscient sort of knowledge if we make it through.

The sign on the hand repels these creatures. I need more info on the sign by anyone who has it.

Studying the occult at a very early age. His abilities have been tested by a commity and everytime he diagnoses something on the body, he is right. My God. They're us.
I realized that humanity reincarnates until it is enlightened, but that's something we have to choose.
>But the people so invested in this world
>All of its comforts
>The sensations and burdens
>The pain and pleasure
What happens to the people who don't want to become enlightened once they run out of lives? The world doesn't just dissolve away on its own. If you're familiar with 40k and theories on entropy and degeneracy, they would become the hedonistic dark eldar.
ITS IN EVERY FUCKING NARRATIVE

Elves into Orcs (Tolkien, High Fantasy), a walk away from original substance.
Desires into dark thoughtforms (40k Grimdark), a walk away from original substance.
Whites into wiggers (Modern Culture), a walk away from original substance.
Fathers into manbabies (Sexual Surrender before faggotry), a walk away from original substance.
European Religions before Christianity (Surrendering to a foreign ideology), a walk away from original substance.

Those grey monsters were human once. All that has been done once has been done before. All goings lead to a return. With a sufficient level of "development", time becomes an illusion. Advance far enough and you don't need to fully understand what something is to use it.
Those advanced enough can exist in any point in time because they exist in >every >point >in >time
So when you fall so far you must eat your own, why not eat those that are already damned? They're from your own past, you'd have a good idea of where to find them. It would explain how we came to fear these creatures, engraving it genetic memory while being so quickly and easily forgotten. There's a curve of trauma that reflects how a population carries on, it reflected the nature of the bombing campaign in the Battle of Britain and is key in understanding Russian Culture.

This knowledge is under our skins, it impacts everything we do. We just forgot why. Our ancestors faced it before. We can too.

It entails demons coming out of the ground and sky, but also some kind of event where the dimensions come together. He told me we would all end up receiving his abilities, all would be revealed to us, but it was important to use the sign so they don't drag us into Hell along with everything we have in our possession.

It's like a paranormal testing committee in that same country where they actually see if you are able to heal the way you claim to. There are maybe one or two verified shamans, he is one of them.

>>24759306
It will happen as the event occurs. I'm not even sure time will work the same way. The way I understand it, everything will happen altogether. Maybe everything we know as reality will change and shift? In any case, I think this is like Judgement Day the way he described it, so there is no coming back after it. Nothing will be the same. "The Devil will come to take his crops on that day." He said.

How can I guarantee something I know nothing about? Maybe the lights don't show up, who knows. It doesn't seem like there is anything guaranteed here, but it being said by that guy, I am going to say that there is 50% chance. Enough for me to come here and share this sign with all of you and what I heard.

If you have read the Scriptures and everything it prophesied and actually came true then one knows judgment day is going to happen.
I swear, if any of these days a beloved celebrity/public figure starts ranting against orthodox religions and proclaiming himself spiritual leader of humanity I'll pick up my shit and go to my off-grid hideout right away.

If only you guys only knew we are nearing the end of this timeline/dimemsion possibility. This plane of existence is nearing its conclusion. Also Skinwalkers are one in the same of these beings mentioned in anons pick there are a ton of those things that are just waiting to come out and drag us. Even the bible references these beings. The verse where an Angel unlocks the bottomless pit and beings come out of this pit that will torment man!! Also during this time even the bible says Man will search for death(suicide) but will be unable to find it!! Also similar to anons pic of these entitys being able to re animated people again who die or try to kill themselves!! Pretty scary stuff. Also I had a dream about 5 years ago about these things that were hunting us but could never see their face really scary feeling and helplessness so anyway enjoy what time we have left of normalcy!!

Fucking newfags. This is the 3 days of darkness leaked by Vatican documents. OP is not being a fucking faggot. He is warning all of you.

Let me break it down. Its going to be demons pretending to be ayy lmaos to drag you down to hell, skin you alive, eat you alive, all sorts of fucking bad things. They might have ships, or some dumb shit, but i 100% believe they are demons.

Before this all starts, admit you are a sinner and accept jesus christ. There is many guides if you are not religious, but I suggest doing this now so your ready with faith. The only thing you should fear is god - and god will protect you if you believe jesus died for you, and us on the cross.

"oh shit, what do I do now?" well, for starers, know your morning times. If you wake up at 10 am and shit is still pitch black, or the power is out and it looks like night time, you know your in for some real fucking shit and remember my shitpost. This is the 3 days of fucking darkness so buckle up and dont shit your pants.

If you are taking me seriously you will have had plenty of time (even during corona) to prep with food, water, and LOTS of warm cloths and blankets. this shit is going to be freezing cold in the darkness. Flashlights, and matches + candles if the batteries are somehow fried by gay demon magic. If you wanna be extra safe, have some salt, pen and paper. I will explain this later.

Also if you are taking it seriously as mentioned above, you would of pre prepped and boarded your windows, and doors ahead of time. Guns are good, but its mostly for after the fact. People will be different and dangerous.

Also forget to mention to DUMP ALL OF YOUR ELECTRONICS. cellphones, Tv, monitors, anything that can be used to control your mind and influence you.

Good? ok now were on the dark days (oh shit oh fuck) Remain calm. Do not attempt to contact ANYBODY. they are most likely gone, and gone forever. If there is others you are living with that are not as autistically knowledgeable on the subject like you are on the dark days, attempt to explain and reason to them. If they don't believe you or are stupid enough to leave the area, let them, they are a major liability. (demons may come back and mimic this person to gain entry).

So now your all locked up, windows blocked, oh, and mirrors, put blankets over mirrors, can't risk seeing shit. With a pen and paper, right that you are a servant of god, and you are under his protection, and slip it under the locked door. This will double down the fact the demons are not invited. Also, put lines of salt at the possible entrances into the room. it will act as a barrier hopefully.

Oh shit, your doing it now anon! your gonna make it! OH FUCK YOUR MOM AND FRIEND IS AT THE DOOR SCREAMING FOR HELP TO GET IN!? tell them to fuck off and try again, its not really them, most people you know are dead. its demons pretending to be your loved ones. stay calm, and don't respond, unless your really ballsy enough to say fuck off. Great, your doing good, eatin food, sippin water, but your freezing your nuts off like its winter. make sure to have lots of blankets and winter clothing. this shit is going to be a cold. At this point your using a flash light, or candles to keep the room lit.

OH SHID THE 3 DAYS ARE OVER, WHAT NOW? wait it out for another 4 days. you don't know how crazy people are going to be out there, or if the NWO has kill teams or some shit or doubling down on establishing it. After 1 week, see the new world around you.

the NWO swings into full gear, and people that were unfortunate to get caught are mindless killers, roaming around and hunts "normal" people like us down.

No mention of anything about a symbol. The only thing you need to have a message nailed / on / under your door is that you a believer of god and jesus christ, and basically denying entry. If you leave your doors or windows unlocked, its passive acceptance and they will come in. They operate like sleezy caresalesmen, they need your passive permission, if you explicitly say no, they wont come in.

Not the anon you're asking but I seriously fucking doubt it. From what he says here >>24769708 about people being mindless husks any demons you don't see in their true form will probably be in a human body with full control, they'll probably act like normal people to get your guard down. In which case not only will they have superhuman strength but they won't die from otherwise fatal wounds. Fucking scary. I hope you faggots are larping cus quarantine got you bored.

The only thing I can think of is the 3 days of darkness. My parents read books on it back during the satanic panic of the 90's and would discuss it with the other catholic parents.

Honestly I....I really dont know if I believe it. I'm having a hard time believing alot of stuff Catholicism filled my head with as a kid. I think it's got alot to do with growing up and seeing how almost nothing that my folks said was demonic is actually anything more than people feeling lost or being desperate or horny.

And I'm very mad at the leadership of the church for abandoning the faithful in a time of need.

So... what the fuck are you on about OP?

If this is the case then you've already thrown caution to the wind, and I gather you're unsure whether this person lurks on 4chan. Might aswell give us a name, won't change the outcome for you or your prophet. If he's one of 2 "approved" people by some psych committee then surely there'll be some info available online? If not then he's a nobody...give us something tangible, it's all anecdotal. Problem with anecdotal is...the more outlandish the less people will believe you - but you're trying to save people, now is not the time to be omitting vital information.
My plan is to use someone else as a test subject if this happens - I'll get some other person to draw the sigil on their hand first and observe the outcome before I commit to that and it's your fault for being a vaguefag.

I can't really say much, I don't want to reveal his identity because he has enough people pestering him, sometimes he gets calls from people and he will deny seeing them without even explaining, as I said he is very unpredictable. He will usually tell them in a calm manner that no he will not see them, leaving the other person baffled.
He is on the Internet if you browse certain Russian websites in the more Eastern part of Europe. Very obscure however. There are very few pages of him though.

I've known him since I was very very young, my mom used to take me to him when I was sick. He's always treated me like a good friend. Sometimes he would predict when a person would die, even if the person showed absolutely no visible signs whatsoever and seemed to be in good healthy condition. His prediction would later come true. He is regarded as as being as one of the greats when it comes to these areas. He always knows things like what a person has in his pockets, what's on their mind, if they're stressing about money for example.
He diagnoses people just by using photos and is able to see all their conditions.

I am not trying to be vague at a crucial time. Its just that as much as I love 4chan, I'm not willing to expose a friend when he obviously always shows that he likes being anonymous. I think that's part of being a magician and I don't want to give him that exposure.
I feel like that would be the same as posting my address on here.
If any of you want to dig enough I'm sure you can find him, not on any American websites though.

During that moment I was unable to move filled with terror, Well that is until that fear was replaced with great curiosity. I wanted to force my arm to move, trying reach out for the doll. As I tried moving the dream began smoothly transitioning to reality, it all kept fading until there was nothing but my room. My arm did not change position throughout the transition.

Now this isn't the first time I posted about this dream. But I think it's interesting how this thread was talking about 3 days of darkness. Eh the dream might be pure coincidence. So don't mind me anons.

>It's a triangle if the longest side of it was round as if part of a circle. I agree there are no triangles though and the explanation wasn't very good
Describe it as cutting the circle into four quadrants, that's easy to understand
